

Federico Moscogiuri

An experienced, dynamic and versatile professional with expertise in strategy development, organisational management, business development and stakeholder engagement

EXPERIENCE (highlights)

Interim Chief Executive September 2025 – present

The Society of Analytical Psychology

- Produced a first-ever Strategic Plan and an Income Generation Plan
- Conducting an organizational review to improve efficiency
- Greatly improved financial reporting, knowledge management and risk management

Chief Executive January 2020 – January 2026

International Federation of Musculoskeletal Research Societies

- Developed a first-ever 3-year Strategic Plan and led on its implementation
- Developed a Global Action Plan on education in research
- Increased corporate income by 60%, achieving a first-ever organisational yearly profit
- Led on the creation of a Council and a democratically-elected Board

Interim Chief Executive February 2019 – December 2019,
Faculty of Sexual and Reproductive Healthcare and May 2021 – November 2021

- Led a successful and multifaceted process of organisational change, including digital transformation, membership diversification, income generation, governance structure and processes; and international work
- Developed a first-ever 5-year Strategic Plan, including a new Vision, Mission and Values.
- Led on the development and implementation of a first-ever Staff Well-Being Plan

Chief Executive February 2017 – August 2018

The Resuscitation Council (UK)

- Developed the RC(UK)'s first-ever Strategic Plan in consultation with key stakeholders
- Created a Public Affairs Directorate and a new and more inclusive membership structure
- Our Restart a Heart campaign won Charity Award for Education in 2018.

Chief Executive May 2012 – February 2017

The Arthritis and Musculoskeletal Alliance (ARMA)

- Developed, articulated and championed a major project on MSK clinical networks in England
- Increased the ARMA membership to its highest-ever level of 41 member organisations
- Developed two 3-year strategic plans in consultation with members
- Improved the finances from a position of deficit to a healthy surplus of roughly £20k

Head of Policy & Campaigns January 2009 – May 2012
Arthritis Care

Campaigns Coordinator January 2007 – January 2009
The Children's Society

Special Assistant to the Campaigns Director October 2002 – June 2006
Amnesty International UK

EDUCATION

- MA/LLM International Law (Distinction / 1st) – University of Westminster, September 2001
Including: human rights, international criminal law, international humanitarian law